GEORGE BEATTY, Auditor
We heard, two days ago, but waited to see it officially announced, that Major General Scott has been recalled to the seat of Government from the South. Such is the fact, and General Jesur will, by his recall, be left in chief command. The reasons for this step are in the breast of the Executive.
Nat. Int.
We learn that Lewis Cass (now Secretary of War) has been appointed by the President of the United States, with the advice and consent of the Senate, to be Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the UNITED STATES TO FRANCE. The appointment was, we understand, confirmed unanimously as soon as announced.—Id.
A letter from the Washington correspondent of the New York American says:
"The Secretary of the Treasury is said to have negotiated with Mr. Biddee for the sale of the stock owned by the United States in the Bank. The terms are not precisely known; but they are such as will justify an immediate advance in the stock in Wall street, now that the dread of such a quantity being thrown upon the market has ceased."

Carrollton:
FRIDAY, JULY 15, 1836.
The Hanover Convention.—The Van Buren Central Committee, of Columbiana county, have fixed upon Saturday, the 27th day of August for the preparatory meetings of the several Townships in this Congressional District, to elect three Delegates each, to the Hanover convention which will assemble on the 29th of August. The committee have published an Address to the people of the district, which we have been requested to publish; but our columns are so occupied as to prevent it for a week or two to come.
The New Lisbon Patriot & Shield, of Friday last, copies from our paper the tickets for the Fall election; and adds a paragraph by way of commentary, which we subjoin. The "latter" ticket referred to by the Patriot, is that in which one of the editors of the Free Press is announced as a candidate—and that ticket is designated as "No party, Neutral" &c.
Situated as we are at present, we will not notice, particularly, the illiberality of the Patriot. We must, however, be permitted to remark that, if the gentlemen who edit that print, had delayed their notice, one week only, they would have been better able to inform their readers of the character of Carroll county nominations.
As it is, they have fired wide of the mark.
No one can doubt their sagacity; but they have unluckily got on the wrong end of the trail. In so doing, around, they knew there was "game about," but they have "bailed up the wrong tree." The following is the paragraph to which we refer:
"The two first named tickets sail under Democratic flags—the latter, we suppose, bears the broad pendant of No-party, or Neutral and Fence-riders, and probably some of them may suit Mr. Ben-ton's expression: "Show me a no-party man, and I will show you a man who refuses to stand at the head or dangles at the tail of Federalism."
We are authorized and requested to announce COL. WILLIAM MCKAYE, of Columbiana county, as a candidate for nomination by the Hanover convention, for Representative in Congress. We observe that JACOB G.
WILLIARD, of Columbiana, is also a candidate for nomination for Representative in Congress.
TO THE ELECTORS OF CARROLL COUNTY.
Since the announcement of my name as a candidate for the place of your Representative in the next General Assembly, I have learned that efforts have been made, at this early day, to spread among you the report that, I opposed the erection of this county Whatever may be the course which I may suppose the political interests of Carroll county require me to pursue, I will not, at any time, acquiesce in the propagation of falsehood or misrepresentation, intended to injure either myself or my friends. I, therefore, now aver that, I never did, either by word or deed, or in any other manner, oppose the erection of this county; and that the report just referred to, is absolutely false.
Your fellow citizen,
JOHN PEARCE.
Carrollton, July 13th 1836.

JAMES MADISON IS NO MORE!
The last of the great lights of the Revolution, the brightest of those great minds, which, like the pillar of fire of old, conducted the American Israel through the trials of the scarcely less important era following the Revolution, and gave to his country the repose, security, and happiness of a wise, regular, stable, and consolidated Government; this pure and beautiful and benign light has at last sunk below the horizon, and is quenched forever in this world. Glorious indeed has been its long course, and though no more to be seen, it has left a radiance in the firmament at which his country with long gaze with admiration and gratitude.
For more than thirty years, the name of JAMES MADISON has, more than that of any other living man, been associated, in the mind of United America, with the principles and the fabric of our Government. He was the principal architect in its construction, if he did not lay its corner stone.
He lived to see it endure many trials, survive great dangers, and to promise endurance for ages.
He died on the morning of Tuesday, the 28th of June. He was born on the 16th of March, in the year 1751; and was, of course, when he died, of the patriarchal age of more than eighty-five years.
His end, visibly approaching for some days before, was such as that of a good and great man ought to be.
His faculties undimmed till his latest hours, he expired without a struggle, free from regret, and from cause of reproach.
The age of virtuous politics is past,
And we are deep in that of cold pretence,
